Village Strategic Vision

- Vision for the Village
- Friendship Heights strives to be a safe, attractive, welcoming, and convenient community that serves the needs of an increasingly diverse population.
- Strategic Goals:
 - Responding to demographic change while maintaining current programs that address long-term residents' requirements related to safety, transportation and access to shops and services.
 - Being proactive in regard to land use and development in and around the village with the goal of protecting and enhancing the quality of life;
 - Playing an active role in countywide decisions that impact the Village, such as development, housing, population growth, education and transportation;
 - Fostering enhanced communication and engagement among Village residents and businesses as well as between residents and the village council, advisory groups and community organizations;
 - Maintaining the tradition of effective and judicious use of taxpayer money.
