Regrets: Sandra Schwarzbart, David Churchill, Sheila Footer

The meeting was held in the Village Center and called to order at 6:00 pm.

Topics:

Members, if available, were recommended to attend the Village Council Meeting on Monday March 13th.

- Related to the Committee's recent report on Identity, there will be a presentation of the Friendship Heights Urban District and the BID Alliance.

Other topics discussed:

- The Willoughby announced that they had elections recently and Christine Malich has been elected President. In addition, the Willoughby is working on updating their lobbies.
- Willard Towers and 4615 N Park have converted to keypad unit and entry locks. For some residents the conversion has caused confusion.
- Fire Sprinklers: This is the state mandated initiative to put sprinkler systems in buildings by 2033. Information was provided based on current knowledge.
- Chair Joe Bucherer announced that the Presidents of The Willoughby, Elizabeth, Carleton, 4620, and the Tenants Association of Willard Towers will begin meeting to discuss common issues, share initiatives and actions, and look for opportunities for cooperation on projects.

The next Committee meeting will be held on April 5th at 6 pm in the Village Center.
