Village Council Meeting

November 10, 2025

Recorded Votes

1. Chairwoman Martha Solt moved to accept the change order proposed by Managed Homes for the Red House for an additional $119,028 to cover new items and increased costs for a total of $255,028. Councilmember Muller seconded the motion. The vote to approve was unanimous.
2. Councilmember Klein moved to accept the Advisory Committee on Development's recommended list of amenities for the Friendship Heights sector plan, including a Montgomery County Public Library, a performing arts center, a public park with a children's play area and dog park, and an aquatic center and tennis complex, and endorsement of this decision should be transmitted by letter from the Mayor to the Montgomery County Planning Board. Councilmember Muller seconded the motion. The vote to approve was unanimous.
